ABOUT ISHAM FAMILY FARM

Owned and operated by the Isham family since 1871, the 108-acre former dairy farm was conserved with the Vermont Land Trust in 2002—to ensure that it will always remain a farm for the enjoyment of future generations. Fifth generation farmer and owner Mike Isham has developed the property into a community farm center and special events venue for the use and enjoyment of local residents and out-of-town visitors.

Isham Family Farm welcomes school and civic groups for tractor-drawn hay rides and educational farm tours. The farm also makes an ideal spot for birthday parties inside or out-of-doors. Contact Mike to make arrangements.

FAMILY REUNIONS, COMMUNITY EVENTS & WEDDINGS

In 2012 renovations to the 200 year-old, 30 by 102' dairy barn were completed. The beautifully restored 3000 square-foot, English-style, timber-frame structure is available for events up to 175 people. Smaller gatherings can also be accommodated in the 30 by 40', fully renovated 1850s carriage barn. Find additional details on our website.

CONVENIENTLY LOCATED

Just 1 mile north of Lake Iroquois, 3.5 miles south of Williston Village and I-89, and 10.5 miles south of downtown Burlington, the farm is easily accessible to visitors, with near-by lodging facilities for out-of-town guests. Directions to the farm are available on our website.
